Fall Term of ten weeks.....$7 00
Winter and Spring Terms of fourteen weeks each, per term.....10 00
Incidental Fee, per term, due from all students..... 25
Charge for Diplomas at Graduation..... 1 50
Tuition for part of term, per week..... 1 00

Students will not be admitted to recitations until they have enrolled, paid tuition, and received an admittance card.

For rates in Music, Commercial, Art, and Elocution Courses, see under those departments.

PAYMENTS.

1. Tuition is payable a term at a time, and strictly in advance.

2. In case of sickness necessitating the withdrawal of a student, half the tuition for the remainder of the term will be refunded.

3. No deduction in tuition for first two weeks of the term.

4. Bills for board in the Ladies' Hall are paid monthly.

5. No deduction from board bill for absence, except when absence is permitted, and then for not less than a week.

6. All young women, except those who live in Buckhannon, or who require to board themselves, must room and board in Ladies' Hall. The rates here are so low that no young woman of ambition need stay away from lack of means.

The experience of our own and older institutions shows the many disadvantages of allowing young women to room and board in private families in town. We can not assume the responsibility of caring for them unless they can be under our immediate supervision. We earnestly request our friends and patrons not to embarrass us with the request that their daughters or any young lady students be permitted to board in families in town.

7. Parents and students will please note particularly the above requirements.

REGULATIONS FOR STUDENTS.

Self-control is the ideal sought, yet a few simple rules are necessary. The good students find them no burden, and obey them cheerfully. Cheerful obedience to rules, promptness in the discharge of duty, and proper reverence for superiors, are necessary in the formation of the best type of character. Students should remember that in the government of a large number of young people at school it is always found necessary to prohibit some things, often harmless in themselves, and entirely proper at home, which, on account of the peculiar conditions of school life, lead to evil.

1. Ladies and gentlemen, except brother and sister, are not permitted to occupy rooms in the same house.

2. Students desiring to leave town for any length of time, or to sever their connection with the institution, must obtain permission from the president, or, in his absence, from the designated professor.

3. No student shall drop or take up a new study without permission from the Faculty. Students must attend all class exercises, whether prepared or not. This rule applies in all departments, including music, business, etc.

4. Students who persistently neglect their duties, or violate plain rules, will first be demerited, then called before the Faculty for discipline; finally, unless they improve, they will be suspended or expelled.

5. Students are required to be in their rooms for study when the bell rings at 7 P. M. They are expected to be quiet and orderly in the houses where they room, and should retire not later than 10 P. M.

6. Writing or marking on the walls of the building or upon the furniture, or injury to the shrubbery, will be treated as a serious offense.

7. Attendance at Church on Sunday, and at the Chapel services daily, is required of all regular students.

8. Students from the neighborhood are not to visit home frequently, and never at such times as will interfere with school duties. Such visits interfere with the highest results of the student's work. It is also a great benefit to be present during the Sabbath.

9. All meetings of the literary societies and all public exercises of the students are subject to the control of the Faculty. The literary societies shall not continue their meetings after 10 P. M., without permission from the Faculty.

10. Students are required to secure rooms away from the main business streets of the town, so as to avoid all interruption of regular habits of study.

11. Students are required to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen at all times, whether in their rooms, in the building, or upon the streets. They are placed on their honor with the hope that they will do what is right. Under such circumstances, few rules are necessary.

12. Students are cautioned against incurring debts for merchandise, boarding, or rooms, etc. They are to pay as they go, and to keep their expenses as low as is consistent with comfort.

PROHIBITIONS.

1. Students shall not room or board at places not approved by the Faculty, nor change their rooms during the term without permission.

2. Young ladies boarding themselves in town must not be away from their boarding places in the evening without permission. They can receive gentlemen callers only on Saturday evenings, and then only such as are approved by the Faculty. Callers must not remain later than 10 P. M.

3. The use of tobacco in the building or on the campus is prohibited; the use of intoxicating liquor by students is absolutely forbidden, also the smoking of cigarettes.

4. Excursions by land or water, attending fairs, socials, or entertainments, are not allowed without permission.

5. Loafing or lounging about the stores, streets, depots, post-office, or any other public place; boisterous or noisy conduct on the street; also the use of profane language or firearms in public or private, are all prohibited; also attending theaters.

6. Young ladies are not allowed to receive calls, or to go walking or driving, with young men on the Sabbath.

7. Students are not to take instruction from teachers outside the Seminary.

8. No athletic contest outside the school arranged without permission.

9. The attitude of the Seminary towards dancing, card-playing, and all questionable amusements is clearly defined. These have no place whatever within the institution, and students are forbidden to engage in them outside.

The management particularly requests parents, guardians, and students to note very carefully the requirements as to payments, the regulations and prohibitions, and thereby avoid possible misunderstanding and disappointment. The success of a great institution like the Seminary depends upon the strict enforcement of all its requirements. Every rule is grounded in necessity.

For requirements and expenses of Ladies' Hall, see pages 52 and 53.

THE SEMINARY.

This catalogue is issued at the close of the thirteenth school year of the Seminary. The institution has, during these few years, taken high rank in the character of its work and in the advantages offered. In thoroughness of its work it is excelled by none, East or West. The attendance has been large from the first. Even its most sanguine friends have been surprised at its rapid development. The phenomenal success of the institution is without a parallel in the educational development of the State or of our Church. During its short history it has come to the front, and now stands first in enrollment among the sixty-two seminaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church throughout the world. It is very gratifying to note the manner in which the school has come into favor with the people, and the class of patrons it is drawing. The public generally have manifested strong confidence in the management and in the future of the enterprise. All the departments are well sustained and well patronized.

Each year of its history the school has been blessed with a gracious revival of religion, and moral and religious sentiment is constantly in the ascendancy.

LOCATION.

Buckhannon is an ideal location for an institution of learning. No town in West Virginia has a natural site superior in beauty or healthfulness. It is delightfully situated on the uplands, near the center of the State, about 1,400 feet above sea-level. Population about three thousand. Railroads are finished or being built to nearly every section of the State. The town is exceptionally healthful, and well supplied with churches. The people are intelligent and hospitable, and are ready to extend a cordial welcome to students. The advantages of the Seminary are drawing to Buckhannon, as a place of residence, a large number of the best people of this and other States.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The main building is a fine structure, substantial, convenient, and well adapted to school purposes. It is built of brick, 106 by 80 feet, three stories in height, and standing on an eminence in the midst of a most beautiful campus of over forty acres, overlooks the river and town.

The Ladies' Hall stands two hundred feet south of the main building. It is a convenient and handsome structure of brick, well finished throughout in hard wood. It has steam heat, bathrooms, inside closets, electric-lights, and modern conveniences. The building is superior to those of most boarding-schools for girls, and offers accommodations not equaled anywhere else in the State. Besides the rooms, neat and well-furnished for students, it contains kitchen, dining-room, parlors, an assembly-room, and teachers' apartments. The life in this home is pleasant and attractive. The young ladies are given all needed freedom, and yet are under the guiding and molding influence of refined Christian teachers. It is a home such that no mother need fear for the moral, social, or mental welfare of her daughter who enters it.

The Music Hall, built of stone and brick, contains thirty-four rooms devoted solely to the Conservatory of Music. Splendidly heated and lighted, it possesses the amplest facilities for musical work.

DESIGN AND SCOPE OF THE SCHOOL.

The design of the Seminary is to furnish to students of both sexes opportunities for a thorough education under Christian influences. It will be the aim of the institution not simply to produce scholars, but to develop character, to promote Christian culture and the truest refinement of thought and conduct. The various departments of instruction furnish to almost all classes of students the best advantages. It is the intention of the authorities to establish full college courses just as soon as circumstances will permit. The institution has full college and university powers. As far as the courses extend, the work is the best. Our courses of study already extend within two years of a full college course.

RELIGIOUS LIFE.

The institution is under the patronage and control of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is positively Christian, though in no sense sectarian. Ten denominations, including Catholics, have been represented among the students. Students attend daily chapel exercises, and on the Sabbath one of the Churches in town, such as they or their parents may select. The Bible is accorded a prominent place in the work of the school. Every Sunday afternoon a religious meeting for the students, conducted by the Christian Associations, is held in the Seminary Chapel. This has proved to be a very helpful and attractive service, resulting in many conversions. There are also other meetings, which bring together the Christian students in consultation and prayer for their unconverted companions. A revival spirit pervades the school during almost the entire year. Almost without exception our students are helped in their moral and religious life by their attendance at the Seminary. Among the students are many preparing for the Christian ministry. Students for the Christian ministry have formed a club for mutual improvement and instruction. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are well organized and very active. There are several strong Circles of King's Daughters.

"If we would hold our promising young people true to Christianity, to the highest ideals of life and character, we must educate them in the institutions of the Church. This principle is everywhere recognized as vital by Churches and Christian educators. The college should be as much, and more a center of Christian work and influence, as much an agency of evangelization as the Church itself. This can possibly be true only of the college owned and controlled by the Church of Christ. Garduates of the Seminary are sought for and admitted to the leading colleges without examination, where they take high rank in scholarship. But more important still is the blessed religious influence which has been a marked feature of the school from the first. This has never been so strong as during the past year. Probably no other institution of the Church has a more positive Christian atmosphere than ours."

CORNER OF READING-ROOM.

Courses of Study.

The Seminary offers the following regular courses: Classical, Scientific, Literary, Normal, Engineering, and Post-Graduate.

At present each course covers five years, two years being preparatory work, but may be finished in much less time, according to the advancement on entering. Two extra years of work are offered, but will not be required of those who wish to finish the regular course. It should be noticed that these courses carry the student well into the college course at any institution, and almost through the courses of many of them. Students in all the courses are permitted to take work in the Music or Art Department, and a large number, particularly of the young ladies, do this.

I. THE CLASSICAL COURSE.

In this course, Latin, Greek, and English are the principal studies. Due attention is given to Mathematics, History, and Natural Science. This has been considered the strongest course in our best schools and colleges from time immemorial. It is especially popular at the Seminary. No other course so thoroughly prepares the student for the various professions and callings in life as this one.

II. THE SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

In the first year the scientific course is exactly like the classical, and throughout contains the same Latin,

Mathematics, and English; but in the second, third, and extra years the sciences take the place of the Greek. The work in science is a thorough preparation for the same line of work in college, and yet sufficiently complete in itself for any who may not have the opportunity to take a college course. This department is better equipped with apparatus, physical and chemical, for teaching and illustrating the natural sciences by experiment than ever before. Students may elect German and French in this course.

III. THE LITERARY OR MODERN LANGUAGE COURSE.

In this course at least one year of Latin and two of either German or French are required. History, Science, and Literature receive careful attention. This course is much the same as that usually pursued in ladies' seminaries, and with its range of electives will prove very attractive. Students are permitted to substitute Music or Art for either Ethics, Chemistry, or Psychology, thus making a very attractive elective course differing from all the others.

The course in French and German includes two years in each language, and is intended to be equivalent in disciplinary value to the same amount of Latin or Greek.

IV. THE NORMAL COURSE.

The design of this course is to prepare our young people for public-school teaching. Besides a comprehensive study of the common branches, School Management, Pedagogy, and History of Education, considerable work is done in English, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Latin, and while the teacher is taking this course, he can select such other branches in other courses as he chooses without extra expense. Because of this, and the fact that we have a large patronage, we can secure most excellent results.

State certificates are granted to our Normal graduates on the same conditions as to the graduates of State Normal Schools and the University.

V. THE ENGINEERING COURSE.

This course is comprehensive, and designed to meet the demands of the extraordinary development within the State. It is in charge of instructors of wide practical experience.

VI. THE POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

This course continues the Seminary graduate towards a full college course.

VII. TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

Special classes are conducted during the Spring term each year for the benefit of teachers who desire to prepare for county examinations.

Departments of Study.

I. LATIN LANGUAGE.

The regular course in Latin extends through three years, with a fourth year's work optional. During the first year special attention is devoted to etymological forms and to Latin composition; also about thirty chapters of Cæsar are read. During the second year four books of Cæsar and four orations of Cicero (In Catilinam) are read; the third year, Cicero's Pro Roscio, Pro Archia, and De Imperio Gnaei Pompei, and the first six books of Virgil's Æneid. The fourth year's class, this year has read Livy, Books 21 and 22, and Cicero's Brutus and Horace's Odes and Epodes. Much attention is given throughout the course to translating English into Latin.

II. GREEK LANGUAGE.

The regular work in Greek covers two years, with a third year's work optional. The first year is given to the mastery of paradigms, Syntax, Composition, and the reading of selections from Xenophon's Anabasis. The second year is given to the further reading of the Anabasis, two terms; Homer's Iliad, one term, and additional practice in Composition. Third year, or extra year's class read this year Homer's Odyssey, one term; Plato, one term; Æschylus, one term.

III. GERMAN LANGUAGE.

The course in German extends through two years, and is intended to be equivalent in disciplinary value to the same amount of Latin and Greek.

The first year is devoted to a careful study of Grammar and to the translation of easy selections. The second, to writing the language and to reading standard works. The first German class completed Cook's Otto's Elementary German Book, Joynes Meissner, Health's Studien und Plaudereien (first series), Immensee, Der Neffe als Onkel, Die Journalisten, and Die Jungfrau von Orleans. The second class completed Cook's Otto's Grammar and Studien und Plaudereien (second series), Hœher als die Kirche, Wilhelm Tell, Maria Stuart, Minna Von Barnhelm, and completed Harris's Composition.

IV. FRENCH LANGUAGE.

The course in French also extends through two years, and is intended to be equivalent in disciplinary value to the same amount of Latin or Greek.

The first year is devoted to a sareful study of Grammar and to the translation of easy prose selections. The second, to writing the language and to reading standard works. The first French class this year completed Whitney's Complete Grammar, La tache du Petit Pierre and Selections from Dumas, George Sand, Victor Hugo, De Vigny, and others. The second class read About's Le Roi des Montagnes, George Sand's Nanon, Racine's Esther, De Vigny's La Canne de Jonc, Hugo's Les Travailleurs De La Mer, and completed Grandgent's Composition.

V. SPANISH LANGUAGE.

The course in Spanish extends through two years. A knowledge of Latin or French is of advantage in the study of this language. The course embraces a careful study of Grammar, Pronunciation, Translation, Reading, and Conversation. The text-books used are Loiseaux' Spanish Grammar, Ramsey's Elementary Spanish Reader, Intermediate Reading, Loiseaux' Spanish Composition, Alarcon's El Capitán Veneno.

VI. ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

Special attention is given in all the courses to the study of English. Grammar, Rhetoric, and Literature are given a most prominent place in the curriculum. Much attention is given to writing, and in all departments regular composition work is required, and no substitution is allowed for any of the English outlined in the regular courses.

In the prepartory course grammar is required throughout the two years. This is intended to prepare the student for the work in the regular courses, as follows:

The First Year the text-books are Lockwood's English and Newcomer's Elements of Composition, with reading required sufficient to illustrate the principles taught. Weekly exercises in composition are required, besides a large amount of work in preparing abstracts, criticisms, etc.

The Second Year the text-books are Abbott's How to Write Clearly, and Stalker's Life of Christ, and Painter's American Literature. This work extends through two terms; besides this, the pupils of the second year meet once a week throughout the year for work in composition and essay writing.

Required Reading in American Literature is as follows: Franklin's Autobiography; Irving's Sketch Book; Bryant's Forest Hymn and To a Waterfowl; any one of Hawthorne's novels; any two of Emerson's essays; Whittier's Snow-Bound; Longfellow's Kavanagh, Hiawatha and The Building of the Ship; any one of Holmes's prose works; Lowell's Harvard Commemoration Ode, The Changeling, and The First Snow-fall; J. G. Holland's Seven Oaks and Bitter Sweet; Helen Hunt Jackson's Ramona; any one of Cooper's Leatherstocking Tales; Eggleston's Hoosier Schoolmaster; Mitchell's Reveries of a Bachelor; Edward Everett Hale's Man Without a Country; Wallace's Ben Hur.

Careful Study for Class Work.—Irving's Rip Van Winkle; Whittier's Songs of Labor; Lowell's Vision of Sir Launfal; Longfellow's Evangeline.

The Third Year the text-books are J. M. Hart's Hand-book of English Composition (one term), and Painter's Introduction to English Literature (two terms). During the term devoted to Rhetoric, constant practice is required in composition, and masterpieces are studied to illustrate the principles taught. The purpose of the terms devoted to Literature is to give the student a survey of the field and a slight acquaintance with the representative authors of each period. Besides composition work, the requirement is as follows:

Winter Term.

Required Reading.—Milton's Lycidas; Hymn on the Nativity; Comus, and two books of Paradise Lost; Dryden's Alexander's Feast; Pope's Essay on Man and Rape of the Lock; any two essays from Dr. Johnson's Lives of the Poets; any two of Scott's novels, not read before; any two of Scott's poetical works, not read before; any two of Dickens's novels, not read before.

SPRING TERM.

Required Reading.—Any two of Shakespeare's plays, not read before; Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield; any two of Addison's essays; one of Swift's essays; Burns's Tam O'Shanter, To Mary in Heaven, Man Was Made to Mourn; Moore's Lalla Rookh; Wordsworth's Lucy Gray, Happy Warrior, and Ode to Duty; Coleridge's Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner, Cowper's Diverting History of John Gilpin, On Receipt of My Mother's Picture; Mrs. Browning's Aurora Leigh; Browning's Saul, Abt Vogler, Evelyn Hope, The Last Ride Together, and How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix; Shelley's Ode to the Clouds; Keat's Eve of St. Agnes; one of Lamb's essays; one of Ruskin's essays; seven chapters of Carlyle's Sartor Resartus; Macaulay's essay on Milton; Two cantos of Byron's Childe Harold; four of Tennyson's Idylls of the King, Enoch Arden, Locksley Hall and Maude.

Careful Study for Class Work.—Chaucer's Prologue; two cantos of first book of Spenser's Faerie Queene; Bacon's essays; Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice; Milton's L'Allegro and Il Pensero; Dryden's Religio Laici; Addison's Roger de Coverley papers; Pope's essay on Criticism; Burns's Cotter's Saturday Night; Goldsmith's Deserted Village; Byron's Prisoner of Chillon; Wordsworth's Tintern Abbey and Imitations of Immortality; Tennyson's Elaine.

VI. MATHEMATICS.

The required work in this department includes those branches which are thought to be the most essential to the student's development and needs. The work covers Third Arithmetic, one year; Higher Arithmetic, one year; Elementary Algebra, two terms; Higher Algebra, two terms;

SEMINARY GROVE AND PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE

Geometry, one year; College Algebra and Trigonometry, one year.

VII. NATURAL SCIENCES.

The work in this department consists of Physical Geography, Physics, Chemistry, Geology, Botany, Astronomy, and Zoology. Of the sciences, Physics and Botany are required in all the courses; in some of the courses liberal substitution is allowed for others. The Seminary is adding new apparatus to this department every year.

The Preparatory Department.

The Preparatory Department covers two years' work, and provides thorough instruction in the English branches for students not qualified to enter the regular courses of study. (See outline below.) No definite age is fixed for admission, but it is seldom that a student under fourteen years can enter to advantage. Primary pupils are not received. A boy or girl should have some knowledge of Grammar and a good start in Third Arithmetic before coming to the Seminary.

We do not advise parents to send boys who are very young, unless they are exceptionally reliable and studious. Girls can be safely sent at an earlier age on account of the safeguards thrown around them in the Ladies' Home.

The Courses of Study are Arranged by Terms. The preparatory studies are the same for each course, and should have two years, as above. However, this depends entirely on the advancement of pupils at time of entering.

Only the first three years of the following courses are required for graduation in the Seminary. The extra years are designed for students who wish to continue their studies beyond the limit of the present courses. A number of students are taking these extra years, and thus shortening the time necessary for completing a college course after leaving the Seminary. Several students have completed a full college or university course in two years after finishing this fourth year's work.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Special Departments of Study.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Rev. John Wier, A. M., D. D., President.

INSTRUCTORS.

J. J. Jelley, Director.

Mrs. J. J. Jelley. Miss Bessie L. Whiting.

Miss Ethel Barnhill. Miss Alma S. Holtz.

James F. Rice.

Music is acknowledged by educators to stand very high as a refining art. It is of special importance to those desiring recognition in public life, and those who expect to labor for the upbuilding of humanity, that they should at least possess a practical knowledge of it.

The Conservatory of Music of the West Virginia Conference Seminary presents its claims to the public with considerations that should be carefully studied by those contemplating a musical course.

Nearly all conservatories are founded in connection with institutions of learning, the wisdom of which is apparent, because a conservatory thus founded can give a broader and more thorough course in music, and can offer to the student the opportunity of taking work in other departments of study.

The Seminary, being under religious influences, and governed by religious principles, affords security and gives strength to the student in moral and religious training.

Branches Taught.—Piano-forte, Cabinet and Pipe Organ, Voice Culture, Harmony, Theory, Composition, Counterpoint, Fugue, Composition, Musical History, Violin, and other orchestral instruments.

PIANO-FORTE AND PIPE ORGAN.

All students are required to pursue the most thorough modern system of technical training practicable, special attention being given to hand formation, the cultivation of touch, interpretation, and correct musical taste. Beginners in Piano and those not far advanced are especially welcome, as they possess few or none of the erroneous ideas and bad habits which are so easily formed by incorrect teaching or by careless practice, and which prove, in many cases, almost insurmountable obstacles to high cultivation. They therefore receive more rapidly the correct fundamental principles, and can, as a rule, make steady and rapid progress, uninterrupted by the tedious process of unlearning bad habits.

VOICE CULTURE.

Cultivation of the voice in singing is now regarded as an important branch of education. Like many other natural powers, it is given to us in a crude state, and we are obliged to develop it through the means that art has revealed to us. This development, necessarily slow, must be managed by a faithful and conscientious instructor, that natural beauty and power may be re-enforced by a clear and concise intellectual and emotional conception of the study in hand.

Probably no other branch in musical culture has been so neglected as that which relates to the development of the voice. There is no branch of the art that affords the people at large more satisfactory enjoyment than refined and cultured singing. It teaches the use of the respiratory organs in a correct manner.

Instruction in this department includes the study of the union of the registers, study of the correct formation of the vowels, and the proper use of the consonants, study of the solfeggio and the application of words, exercises for obtaining flexibility of the voice through proper exercises in scales—major, minor, and chromatic—study of embellishments suitable to the different kinds of songs, study of English, Italian, and German songs, the development of the voice to suit the parlor, church, and public hall.

VIOLIN.

As no other instrument is so capacious or diversified in its character, and as none other is so dependent in every particular on the conception of its manipulator as the violin, it will be at once apprehended that thorough and careful training is necessary to produce a good violinist. The fact is that correct teaching is indispensable; for there never was a self-taught violinist. Many imagine they can glean from so-called self-instructors all that is necessary to become a passable player, but find, when it is often too late, that they have only made themselves a source of annoyance to their friends, besides being constantly harassed by a feeling of inferiority when in the presence of musicians, and, what it still worse, they find that they have acquired bad habits, which, if they did wish to correct them, could never be (if of long standing) entirely overcome.

HARMONY.

No one can claim rank as a musician without a knowledge and understanding of the principles laid down in this branch of study. One is enabled to analyze and interpret from the most simple to the highest forms of composition. The following may be considered as an outline of the work in this department: First term—Notation, keys, scales, intervals, formation of the common chord and its constructions; simple part writing; inversions of the common chord introduced. Second term—Inversion of the common chord continued, also the chord of the seventh with its inversions, with additional exercises in harmonizing bases. Third term—additional exercises, as in second term; harmonizing easy melodies introduced; modulation introduced. Fourth term—Study of modulation, with additional exercises, as in previous term; also the study of suspension and retardations. Fifth term—Exercises as in previous terms, also in open harmony and harmonizing melodies. Sixth term—Exercises in harmonic composition, with additional exercises. Elements of Harmony, by Stephen A. Emery, with practical exercises.

WHEN TO ENTER.

Students can enter at any time. It is preferable to have all students enter at the beginning of each term, and not necessitate an interruption by later admissions or the formation of similar classes.

NOTATION AND SIGHT-READING CLASS.

Few of the thousands who are studying music are able to read even a plain hymn tune correctly at sight. As a matter of economy to the student in music, this should be the first class sought, in order to acquaint himself with the signs and characters employed in written music, and, above all, to study the subject of tonality, thus enabling him to hear tonal effect without being obliged to have the selection played. This class meets twice each week.

ENGLISH.

The requirements in English for graduation in the Department of Music are the same as in the regular Literary Courses.

THE CHORUS.

The students who are regular members of the Conservatory are eligible to membership without extra compensation. To literary students and residents of Buckhannon a fee of one dollar will be charged. The course of study will comprise English glees and part songs. Oratorio and secular adapted to the ability of the chorus.

REHEARSALS.

Rehearsals will be held every two weeks. Pupils are expected to perform such pieces as may be selected by their respective teachers. These performances are designed to inspire confidence in public appearance, and to stimulate students to a greater degree of activity in practice and study.

THE CONSERVATORY CIRCULATING LIBRARY OF MUSIC.

To facilitate the work of the Department of Music, there has been added to its advantages a library of music which embraces all the technical studies for the piano, progressive studies, selections comprising all grades, sonatinas, sonatas, and concertos. In the Vocal Department, vocalizes, solfeggios, studies in flexibility, selections ranging from the easiest grade to the most difficult. In the Orchestral Department are all exercises, studies, and selections necessary for the advancement of the pupil.

The music will be loaned at the nominal fee of one dollar per term in each department.

All pianos are owned and controlled by the Seminary.

MUSIC EXPENSES.

Piano, Voice, Violin, Cabinet or Pipe Organ, two lessons per week: Fall term, $12; winter term, $16; spring term, $15. One lesson per week: Fall term, $7; winter term, $9; spring term, $9.

McGluckin, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. A. Y. Cornell, New York; Mr. Gwillyn Miles, New York; The Hahn-Parke Ladies' String Quartette, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. Sol. Marcosson, violinist, Cleveland, Ohio.

Which was adopted, February, 1895, by the State of West Virginia for use in free schools of the State, has been arranged for teachers who desire to prepare themselves to teach this important branch in connection with their regular work at $1.50 per term.

Department of Elocution.

Rev. J. Wier, A. M., D. D., President.
Iva D. McCray, Principal of Department.

The object of this department is the development of correct expression in reading, public speaking, and in the interpretation of literature, and, as a result of this training, ease and grace and naturalness in conversation and general bearing.

This work should go hand in hand with the regular literary work of the Seminary.

The work in this department is divided into the following courses, each of which may be finished in one term:

REGULAR COURSE.

The regular course in this department can be completed in three years. The required work for first year is as follows:

Two private lessons per week.

Two class lessons per week.

Two lessons per week in physical culture, during fall or winter term.

Lockwood.

Text for class work, Cumnock's Choice Readings.

The required work for the second year is as follows:

One private lesson per week.

Two class lessons in literary and dramatic interpretation.

Two lessons per week in physical culture, during fall or winter term.

Junior English.

Text for class work, Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar, Macbeth, Selections from the best English and American authors.

The required work for the third year is as follows:

Two private lessons per week.

Two class lessons per week, in literary and dramatic interpretation.

Two lessons per week in physical culture, during fall or winter term.

Senior English.

Text for class work, Two plays from Shakespeare, and selections from the best English and American authors.

ADDITIONAL COURSES IN CLASS WORK.

In addition to the regular course in elocution, classes are organized for those who wish to learn the fundamental principles of good reading and good speaking, and can not take the regular course.

In the beginning class much attention is paid to correct pronunciation, distinct articulation, naturalness of expression, and the proper use of the voice.

In the practical public speaking class, opportunity is given for debating and extemporaneous speaking. Questions of the day are discussed, helpful criticisms are given by teacher and members of the class, faults in delivery are carefully pointed out and an attempt made to correct them.

The class in literary and dramatic interpretation is open to those who desire to study the masterpieces of literature for the purpose of becoming better able to read and interpret them.

PRIVATE LESSONS.

Those not wishing to take the regular course or class work may take private lessons, in which special attention is given to the particular needs of the individual student.

The requirements in English for graduation in the Department of Elocution are the same as in the regular Literary Course.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

Classes in physical culture are formed each term for the young ladies. The work in these classes is based upon the Swedish, American, and French, or Delsarte, Systems, and consists of all those exercises which tend to strength and grace of movement. Special exercises are given to meet individual needs. Pupils' recitals are given as often as practicable.

RATES OF TUITION.

Class work in elocution, per term, $3.

Private lessons, two per week: Fall term, $12; winter or spring term, $15.

Physical culture: Fall term, $2.50; winter or spring term, $3.50.

School of Business.

Rev. J. Wier, A. M., D. D., President.
Geo. W. Broyles, Principal.

Instructors.

Geo. W. Broyles. Eva E. Broyles. Julia A. Bender.

Seminary School of Business is a high grade business training-school with a thorough, practical course of study indorsed by the best business men of the country. It has an experienced and efficient corps of teachers, and all the necessary appliances for imparting a thorough business education.

The following distinct courses are given: Commercial, Stenographic, and Penmanship.

COMMERCIAL COURSE.

This course comprises Book-keeping in all its phases, Arithmetic, English, Commercial Law, History of Commerce, Commercial Geography, Correspondence, Spelling, and Penmanship. It is a strong course for young men who expect to enter into business either for themselves or for others. It stimulates energy and self-reliance, and trains them in those lines which have a special and direct application to the practical affairs of life.

STENOGRAPHIC COURSE.

The subjects required for graduation in this course are Shorthand, Typewriting, Commercial Law, English, Spelling, Correspondence, Dictation, and Penmanship.

The work in Shorthand consists first in mastering the text thoroughly, special stress being placed upon perfect forms and correct habits in writing. Then daily practice is given from dictation until the student writes difficult matter at a rapid rate, and produces readily a correct transcript from his notes.

Typewriting is under the personal supervision of competent and experienced typists, who give personal instruction to each student daily. The following is the course of study: Mechanism, adjustment, and care of machine; location of letters; proper fingering and evenness of touch; graded exercises in words; commercial, legal, and legislative phrases; business correspondence, headings, titles, and addresses; spelling, punctuation, capitalization; letters and circulars relating to all kinds of transactions; miscellaneous forms of reports, receipts, bills, etc.; legal forms and testimony.

PENMANSHIP COURSE.

Penmanship is a universal art, yet it is remarkable how few persons can write a neat, graceful, and legible hand. Our course is a complete guide to the acquisition of a beautiful handwriting. The instructions are clear and to the point, in either Plain or Ornamental style, and if followed, the improvement in the penmanship of the student is wonderful.

Good penmanship is like a neat personal appearance—a letter of introduction anywhere—and our course places good handwriting within the grasp of all.

RATES OF TUITION.

Commercial or Stenoraphic Course, Fall term, $12.50; Winter or Spring term, $17.

Typewriting or Ornamental Penmanship, Fall term, $5; Winter or Spring term, $6.50.

Plain Penmanship, Fall term, $2.50; Winter or Spring term, $3.

Much stress is laid upon the ability to spell well and use good English. Students in the School of Business who are deficient in these branches may pursue them in the Literary Department, without extra cost.

General Information.

ADMISSION.

The school will begin work promptly on the day announced. Classes will be formed and lessons assigned at once. Although students may enter at any time, they are urged to be present, if possible, the first day of the term. This is important in the fall term, and especially so for those who expect to take a regular course of study. New students should bring a letter of recommendation from pastor or teacher, and, if possible, a statement of studies already pursued. If a student comes from a high or normal school or seminary, let him bring a list of studies pursued, with grades.

ENROLLMENT.

The first duty of all students on arriving at school, also at the opening of each term, is to enroll at the President's office.

Any student desiring to sever his connection with the school, except at the end of a term, must obtain permission from the President.

INDUCEMENTS TO STUDENTS.

The attention of the public is invited to the following advantages of the Seminary, all of which are not found together in any other institution in the State:

1. Location.—It leaves almost nothing to be desired. One of the most picturesque and healthful locations in the United States. Free from malaria.

2. Moral and Religious.—Particular attention is given to religious training and influence. The moral atmosphere is superior to that of other towns of the size. THERE ARE NO LIQUOR SALOONS, and never have been, in this county.

3. Faculty and Instruction.—The Faculty is large, and each one well qualified for his particular work. They come from several of the best colleges and universities in America. The grade is high and instruction thorough. We invite comparison of our work with that done anywhere else.

4. Variety of Courses.—Besides the regular classical, scientific, and literary courses, excellent facilities in music, art, business, shorthand, and elocution are offered.

5. Normal Course.—No other institution in the State offers so many advantages to public-school teachers. See body of the catalogue. All departments are open to teachers.

6. All Courses Open to Both Sexes.—Young people of both sexes meet together in the classroom, and, under proper restrictions, in social life; yet a careful oversight is maintained of all association of students with those of the opposite sex.

7. Very Low Expenses.—A young man can attend the full school year of thirty-eight weeks, paying board, tuition, and all other regular necessary school expenses, for $120. This is cheaper than most schools that offer free tuition. The reason of this is that board is lower here, and rooms about one-half the price usually paid where the same facilities are offered.

8. Standing.—The institution already has a recognized high standard and reputation, and has taken its place among the best schools in the Middle States. The Music and Art Departments deserve special mention; also the Business Department.

9. The Ladies' Hall furnishes a first-class home for young ladies, with refined Christian influences and careful atention to their wants.

SELECTION OF STUDIES.

New students are required to consult the Faculty concerning their studies. It is usually the best policy for students to enter upon a regular course of study, even if they are not sure they can remain to complete it. Changes in a course once selected may be made for reasons satisfactory to the Faculty. Students are warned against undertaking too much work. Every student is permitted to take all the studies he can carry. A student rarely, if ever, regrets having entered one of the regular courses, but many regret the opposite. Students will not be held back, but will be allowed to complete a course as rapidly as they may be able.

EXAMINATIONS.

The examinations are made sufficiently rigid to test the student's acquaintance with the subjects. A final grade of seventy on the basis of one hundred is required for advancement in each study. Any student falling below seventy must either take the study over again or pass another examination.

The committee of visitors appointed by the Conference are invited to be present at the annual examinations.

Giving or receiving aid on examinations will be considered a serious offense, and any one so offending will be dealt with accordingly. Students completing one of the regular courses will receive a diploma. A permanent record of all grades is kept at the office, and at the end of each term the standing of each student is reported to parent or guardian.

Charge of One Dollar ($1.00) will be made for every examination on work not taken in class, also for every special examination given before the end of the term on work taken in class, except in the case of persons who are going out to teach, and these are to take their examinations on Thursday and Friday prior to the opening of their schools. All not taken on these days come under the above regulations.

This fee of one dollar must be paid to the President when the permit is received.

Optional attendance at class is considered work outside of class.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the institution is kind, but firm. Such rules as experience has proved necessary for the maintenance of good order are adopted. The Faculty endeavor to look after the welfare of the students, and aim to supply, as far as possible, the lack of parental counsel and control. It is just to say that the Seminary has a marked influence for good on the lives of its students. The institution has made a reputation for good order and good morals. None but persons of good moral character need apply for admission. While we seek to help every student to form right habits of life, the incorrigible are not wanted; the Seminary is not a reform school. Entering the Seminary is considered a pledge to obey the rules of the institution, and students may enter only on this condition. The success of coeducation depends almost wholly on the measure and manner of the mingling of the sexes. The policy of the Seminary in this respect has the highest approval and possesses the fullest confidence.

HOW TO REACH BUCKHANNON.

The West Virginia and Pittsburg Railroad passes through Buckhannon, and connects with the Baltimore and Ohio at Clarksburg, forty miles distant. The Sutton Branch and Gauley Extension open to travel a section of the State hitherto unreached by rail. Trains leave Clarksburg for Buckhannon at 10.45 A. M. and 4 P. M. Students can reach Buckhannon in a day or less from Wheeling, Parkersburg, or Cumberland. Buy tickets and check baggage through. If possible, students should reach here a day before the opening of the term, in order that they may arrange for rooms and boarding.

TO THE NEW STUDENT.

If you are personally unknown to us, do not fail to bring a certificate of good moral character. We seek only such students as intend to be gentlemen and ladies while in the Seminary. Please read all the regulations, etc., in the catalogue, in order that you may know precisely what is expected of you. If no one is at the train to meet you, leave your trunk at the station, and, unless you have friends in town, come to the Seminary. There information concerning rooms, boarding, etc., can be obtained.

All students who expect to enter are requested to make their purpose known to the President in advance by letter. Lady students especially should do this, and also state whether they desire us to reserve room for them in the Ladies' Hall. They should state just when they will arrive, and they can be met by the school authorities at the station. If young ladies are not met on arrival by a representative of the Faculty, they should come at once to the Ladies' Hall. There is no lack of suitable boarding-places at all times, and prices are lower than formerly.

We cordially invite students and well-disposed young people of both sexes to our halls, and promise them thorough and systematic training.

BOARDING AND ROOMS FOR YOUNG MEN.

Furnished rooms, without board, cost from 50 to 75 cents a week for each student, two in a room. Most young men rent rooms and board in clubs, and thus save considerable from the regular price of boarding. Laundry costs about 25 cents per week, often less. Board and furnished rooms in private families cost from $2.25 to $3 per week. Board in clubs costs $1.50 to $2 per week.

Several clubs are in operation each term, and for most young men this is the best and most pleasant method of boarding. The majority of our best young men board in clubs. The institution heartily approves of club-boarding, and encourages it in every way. The young men mostly room in private families near the Seminary. The authorities take a personal interest in securing accommodations for students in good families near the Seminary. We have no difficulty in securing rooms for all who come, even without previous notice.

Let such as desire to secure boarding-places in advance write to the President before the opening of the term. A list of boarding-places and rooms may be seen at the President's office. Students will not be permitted to room at places not approved by the institution. Residents of the town who receive roomers or boarders from the Seminary are required to take a personal interest in them, to guard their morals carefully, and to report to the Faculty any improper conduct.

SELF-BOARDING.

The chief expense in the school is the boarding. Quite a number of students have kept this at the minimum by boarding themselves. Many young ladies have done this with good results, also some young men. Board and room may thus be brought within $1.50 to $2 per week. There is no stigma on those who thus board themselves, for among them are some of our best students. Character and worth, not money, is the standard at the Seminary.

LADIES' HALL.

The Hall has proved a great blessing to the institution and to the young ladies of the School. It furnishes for them a first-class Christian home. Besides the supervision of the President, the Preceptress and the Matron devote their time to the welfare and guidance of the students. Seven lady members of the Faculty reside in the building. The aim is to combine the refining influence of a Christian home with educational advantages. Every effort possible is put forth to make things comfortable and attractive for the students.

Rooms will be assigned in order of application. Persons intending to come should write the President some time in advance, and should notify him when they will arrive. It is important to arrive early. A forfeit fee is charged when a room is reserved in advance.

EXPENSES IN LADIES' HALL.

For table board, furnished room, heat, light, tuition in regular courses, including Physical Culture, use of library and reading-room for the full year, from $145 to $165, depending upon the size and situation of room. The charge for board per week is $2.50. The cost of room-rent varies with the size and location of the rooms.

LADIES' HALL.

A discount is allowed on board when two sisters enter together. Guests of the students are charged for room and board at students' rates. Laundry is extra. Breakages of school property are replaced by those breaking.

A special discount is allowed to daughters of traveling ministers.

The above prices are exceedingly low. Many other institutions receive $200 and $300 for advantages and accommodations in no respect superior, often not equal, to ours. We invite comparison of our rates with those of other first-class schools. It is service and quality, not style, for which students should pay. The rooms are all first-class, and are well and neatly furnished. A separate wardrobe is provided for each student. The home life in the building is made pleasant and attractive. The social and religious life of the girls, as well as their general habits, receive careful attention. Write for particulars, and we will promptly send a statement of exact expenses of a term or year, as you desire.

WHAT TO BRING.

Each young lady should bring with her an umbrella, a pair of overshoes, and a waterproof. For use in her own room, a tumbler, a teaspoon, a comforter, a blanket, two sheets and towels, a rug for the floor of her room; also napkins for table use. All these articles should be marked with the owner's name. All mail and express packages or telegrams for girls should be sent in care of the Seminary to insure prompt delivery.

A WORD TO THOSE OF LIMITED MEANS.

Let no young person that desires an education, and is anxious to attain true success in life become discouraged on account of poverty. A large proportion of those who hold the chief positions of influence were once as poor as any one can be. Education is the honorable way out of your present position. With good health, good habits, ordinary intellect, and a resolute will, nobody need be discouraged; an education is within reach. By strict economy and hard work, one can sometimes earn enough in three months to support himself in the Seminary for six months. Can you command $40 or $50 to start with? Have you energy and perseverance? Are you willing to make sacrifices? Then come and begin at once. Better to enter, even if you can not see your way through. Usually when a student is in earnest, some way whereby he can remain in school will open. We do all we can to put students in the way of helping themselves, in order that they may be able to remain in school. Young men preparing for the ministry will find it to their advantage to correspond with the President. Also other students seeking employment as a means to provide expenses.

LOANS.

The Seminary receives each year a limited amount of money from the Board of Education to be loaned to needy students. This money is not given to the student, but simply loaned to him until he can pay it back. It begins to draw interest soon after he leaves school. The Board shows preference to those students who expect to enter the ministry.

A few special scholarships have been established. They consist of a loan fund of $25 each. During the past year several persons have given toward scholarships which bear their names. Reports are regularly made to the donor. It is earnestly hoped that other benevolent persons will establish one or more of these scholarships. Many persons could not give $25 at once, but they could give a small sum each year, and these amounts would soon reach the desired sum. The Epworth Leagues could take up no better work than this. Young people are constantly asking if they can in any manner work their way through the Seminary. There are scores of worthy young people of both sexes, some of them persons of great promise of future success in life, who are anxious to attend school, but have not the means. Many of our students are compelled to remain out of school about half the year to earn money. Any gifts for this purpose will be promptly acknowledged, and used to the best advantage.

A WORD TO PARENTS.

Parents should not allow their children to be absent while school is in session, for the purpose of visiting, either at home or elsewhere. All such absence injures the standing of the student often, and embarrasses the management. Students who live near Buckhannon are warned against this very common mistake. They should in no case visit home every week.

Outside of the regular expense for tuition, board, laundry, books, and stationery, there is little need of pocket money. This is a matter of vital importance. Students are often injured by being too fully supplied with money. Parents will do their children a kindness by requiring an itemized account of all expenses. Money may be left in charge of the Faculty, if desirable. Plainness in dress is encouraged. Parents and guardians should write directly and freely to the President on all matters pertaining to students. The lady principal desires the fullest correspondence respecting the lady students.

Please do not send to students boxes of confectionery or edibles of any kind. We shall esteem it a favor to have you write us freely concerning your children, especially if they have cause for complaint or are dissatisfied. We want to know the reason. We expect your earnest support and faithful co-operation in securing the best discipline.

Our purpose is to make the moral and religious life of the school such that parents may feel that their sons and daughters will be safe under its influence. Parents should carefully consider the moral and religious conditions in selecting a school for their children. Young people should be brought under the best influences during the formative years of their education. At no other time in life are these conditions so important. To develop Christian character, and not simply to impart secular learning, is the true end of education.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two flourishing literary societies in connection with the institution—the Chrestomathean and Excelsior. These societies have nicely carpeted and furnished halls, with pianos, in the Seminary buildings. The societies are a great attraction to students, and all are invited to join.

LIBRARY AND READING-ROOM.

A good beginning for a library has been made. At present there are over two thousand volumes, embracing considerable variety in the different departments of literature. The books have been catalogued after the most approved system. Students are given free use of the library. Many standard works are yet needed, besides most of the more recent publications in all departments of literature. A large number of books have been added the past year. Friends of the institution are cordially invited to send books or money to the library. We also earnestly solicit from our friends specimens of all kinds suitable for the museum and cabinets. If you have any geological or other specimens, remember the Seminary.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

We have received books for the library from several persons. We hope our friends will continue to remember us, and help us to secure a good working library. Mr. C. D. Howard continues his splendid interest in the Loan Fund. Many publishers have sent free copies of their papers to the reading-room. All such will please accept our thanks. We hope they will continue to remember us. Special gratitude is due to Miss Adelaide R. Tompkins, of Pittston, Pa., through whose interest and influence our library rooms have been newly furnished and many volumes added to the shelves. Also to Mrs. John A. Barnes, of Weston, W. Va., for additions to the furniture of the Ladies' Hall. Dr. D. K. Pearsons, of Chicago, has most generously given $25,000 to the Endowment Fund. This fund, through the generosity of a multitude of friends, has been increased to $100,000.

TEXT-BOOKS.

All necessary text-books can be obtained at the Seminary. Students should bring with them whatever books they now have; in many cases they will answer here.

Following is a partial list of text-books used:

Harvey's, Reed and Kellogg's Grammars; Lockwood's English (Rhetoric), Hart's Rhetoric, Reed's Word Lessons, Painter's English Literature, Painter's American Literature, Mitchell's Intermediate Geography, Le Conte's Compend of Geology, Todd's New Astronomy, William's Elements of Chemistry, Gage's Physics, Ray's Arithmetic and Elementary Algebra, Milne's Arithmetic, Wentworth's School Algebra, College Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry, Gray's Botany, Whitney's French Grammar, Grandgent's French Composition, Cook's Otto's German Grammar, Harris's German Composition, Collar and Daniell's Beginner's Latin, Greenough's Virgil, Kelsey's Cæsar and Cicero, Harkness's Latin Grammar, White's Beginner's Greek, Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Harper and Wallace's Anabasis, Perrin's Iliad, Halleck's Psychology, Willoughby's Civil Government, Meyer's General History, Montgomery's United States History, Montgomery's History of England, White's Pedagogy and School Management, Painter's History of Education.

WHAT THE SEMINARY NEEDS.

What the Conference Seminary needs is large gifts and bequests from those who have means.

No nobler cause now invites the gifts of the benevolent than the West Virginia Conference Seminary. Already we have an attendance reaching into the hundreds. Our very success creates new needs. Here are the conditions and surroundings necessary for building up a great institution of learning. We are facing a great opportunity now in West Virginia. A Christian college is greatly needed in the heart of the State. Here is the location, the spirit, the opportunity. Already some have given, and others are seriously considering the subject. This is God's work, and should have a generous share of the riches of his people. There are twenty men in the State who could give $5,000 each, and be the richer by doing it. Some could give more. Some of these men want to do good with their money, and might be brought to see that the Seminary furnishes the best possible opportunity for doing it. Will you act now, while you have life and opportunity? Persons with no heirs could, with injustice to no one, do a great service to the cause of God by helping the Seminary. The school has lost several large gifts by persons waiting for a convenient time, which never came. Better give while you live, than to leave it in a will that is likely to be broken. The President will give attention to all correspondence bearing on the subject. Let every pastor feel that he is a special agent for the Seminary, and keep this matter before our people.

ANNUITY FOR LIFE.

The authorities of the Seminary will be glad to arrange with any person who desires to convey real or personal estate, money or bonds, to the institution on condition that interest be paid to the donor during life. This is a very desirable form of investment, and makes sure that the money will fall to the institution in the end. It relieves the donor of all anxiety and care in looking after it, which is often a source of much annoyance in ordinary business investments. It insures a good rate of interest, promptly paid. The danger of loss is practically eliminated; for the Seminary has a very valuable property, and is backed by the whole Conference. Many thousands of dollars are held thus by educational institutions. Already some persons have given money to the trustees on this plan. Houses and lands can easily be conveyed in this way.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The attention of those who desire to make benevolent use of their property is called to the following form of bequest:

I. I give and devise to "The Board of Trustees of the West Virginia Conference Seminary" and its successors and assigns forever, the following lands and premises, that is to say:

II. I give and bequeath to "The Board of Trustees of the West Virginia Conference Seminary" the sum of ..... dollars, to be paid by my executors out of my estate within ..... months after my decease, and to be appropriated by the Trustees of said institution, in such manner as they shall think best.

Further information on this important subject, or on any matters pertaining to the Seminary, may be had by addressing the President.
